

The Power of the Bicycle: The Miracle Machine

Speaker

Martin Baildon

Liberal Education Centre,
Associate Professor

7/6
Wed.
12:10~13:00

場所

iCoToBa Activity Space

参加者多数の場合は、 iCoToBaラウンジも使用します。

The humble bicycle is indeed a master invention. Not only can this device offer cheap and easy transportation, but it can offer unrivalled solutions to many global and domestic problems. Benefits include significant protection from serious illness and sickness, increased life expectancy, the potential for enormous reductions in pollution, major decreases in traffic congestion and greater opportunities for ageing populations. It is not athletes or keen weekend cyclists who can enable such benefits, but the everyday rider using their bicycle for everyday uses.

